

AQA Psychology

Level 3: A Level

PROGRAMME AIM:

To provide students with a sound understanding of the various methods and approaches in Psychology. We aim to help the students to develop their research skills in psychology including basic data analysis. In addition we encourage the students to develop their confidence in forming coherent arguments and developing communication skills to enable them to present subject

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS / SUITABILITY:

5

CONTENT:

A-Level

- Social Influence
- Memory
- Attachment
- Psychopathology

- Approaches in Psychology
- Research Methods

LEADS TO:

The Psychology course can lead to a career in Sport, Health, Education, Childcare, Nursing, the Law, Social Work, Criminal / Forensic Research, and Personnel Management. A significant number of students continue to pursue the subject at university and beyond into professional careers. We have had a number of successful past students who have qualified professionally returning to school and delivering

ASSESSED / EXAMINED:

Three A Level examinations: Assessment—3 x 2 hour written examinations